

Table of Contents:

Unit I: General Principles

1. Pharmacology and the Nursing Process in LPN Practice
2. Legal, Regulatory, and Ethical Aspects of Drug Administration
3. Principles of Pharmacology

Unit II: Principle of Drug Administration

4. Drug Calculation: Preparing and Giving Drugs

Unit III: Drug Categories

5. Anti-infective Drugs: Antibiotics, Antitubercular Drugs, Antifungals, Antiparasitics
6. Antivirals and Antiretrovirals
7. Drugs for Allergy and Respiratory Problems
8. Drugs Affecting the Renal/Urinary and Cardiovascular Systems
9. Drugs Affecting the Central Nervous System
10. Drugs Affecting the Peripheral Nervous System
11. Drugs for Pain Management
12. Anti-inflammatory, Anti-arthritis, and Antigout Drugs
13. Drugs for Gastrointestinal Problems
14. Drugs Affecting the Hematologic System
15. Immunomodulating Drugs
16. Drugs Affecting the Endocrine System
17. Drugs for Diabetes Management
18. Drugs for Ear and Eye Problems
19. Over-the-Counter Drugs, Herbal and Alternative Drugs, and Vitamins and Minerals